VOLUNTEER ROLES

(Must be 18 years or older to apply)

Digital Program Volunteer

This volunteer role provides excellent customer service, assists students, clients, and faculty members who use our digital lab. A friendly, outgoing demeanor, experience with digital photography fundamentals, such as scanning, printing, curves, and basic skills with Adobe Photoshop and Mac platforms is required. Training is provided.

Minimum commitment: 4-6 hour commitment weekly on a quarterly basis

Analog & Studio Program Volunteer

This volunteer role provides excellent customer service, assists students, clients, and faculty members who use our black & white darkrooms and lighting studios. A friendly, outgoing demeanor, experience with studio lighting, darkroom printing, darkroom and chemistry set-up, and a commitment to procedures and safety is required. Training is provided.

Minimum commitment: 4-6 hour commitment weekly on a quarterly basis

Gallery Program Volunteer

This volunteer role assists our Public Programs Curator with installing and de-installing our exhibitions. This includes prepping the gallery walls, unpacking and handling artwork, condition reports, installation layout, hanging artwork and applying signage. Join the gallery crew on opening nights to assist with lecture set up, ticket taking, beverage serving and celebrate with us! Help distribute posters and program brochures in the greater Seattle area. Training is provided. Minimum commitment: 3-6 hours. Exhibitions rotate approximately every 6-12 weeks.

Event Volunteer

Do you have event experience and are interested in joining a fast paced planning process and hard working group of staff, board members, and volunteers? Consider volunteering for our two major annual events – Long Shot (June 18-25, 2016) and our annual benefit and auction (October 7, 2016). We are looking for volunteers who can be positive, pro-active, connected team members to help with anything and everything!

Volunteer Photographer/Videographer

Help us capture the community at our events and gallery receptions. Take installation shots of our exhibitions and facilities. We seek individuals with a creative eye that can help us produce content for effective marketing, cultivation and grant proposals.

PCNW Cleaning Crew

Do you ever get that bug to organize and clean something? Join the Tuesday morning cleaning crew and help us keep our darkrooms, labs and classrooms fresh & tidy. We thank our cleaning crew generously with perks. Minimum commitment: 2 hours.

Please tell us why you are interested in becoming a Photographic Center NW volunteer and which lab/role you prefer. (see above)

Describe your familiarity with photography. Please note any darkroom or digital related skills including classes taken, and related work experience(s).

Please give us an example of a time when you provided great customer service. What was the outcome?

As a volunteer at PCNW what is it you would most like to do or accomplish? Feel free to list any past connections you have had to the Center.

Please mark the smiley face next to all of the possible times you can commit.
