

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OPENING / PHOTO CENTER NW

The Photo Center is searching for a visionary leader who brings the skills necessary to help us continue to enhance our programs and reputation in the photographic arts. In partnership with a dynamic board and highly qualified staff, the person stepping into this role would be responsible for continuing to manage the organization's main program areas including educational programs, exhibitions, development, marketing, artist facilities, and community outreach work while leading the staff, board, and key stakeholders to take our work to the next level.

WHO WE ARE

The Photo Center is a unique hybrid community arts center, renowned gallery, and nationally accredited school with strong ties to the international photographic community. Our mission is to strengthen the community by elevating the art and appreciation of photography.

- We are a non profit 501(c)(3) celebrating our 20th anniversary this year
- The Photo Center has 10 full time staff and over 20 adjunct faculty members
- We serve over 1,000 students per year and over 1,000 visitors and program participants
- Our budget is just over 1-million dollars
- We reside in a vibrant neighborhood in Seattle, Washington

THIS ROLE ENTAILS

- Oversight of the staff, faculty, and volunteers in partnership with our department directors
- Engaging the board in fundraising and committee work
- Building relationships with donors and prospective donors including corporate supporters
- Being a spokesperson and advocate for the Photo Center
- Oversight of the programs and facilities to ensure organizational sustainability including building additional revenue streams and growing our current earned and contributed income
- Audience building, networking, and building strategic partnerships
- Continued review of strategic goals, progress in that direction, and flexibility to recalibrate priorities to best serve the mission of the organization

WE ARE SEARCHING FOR

- A collaborator
- A leader
- A person with an excellent track record as a manager and working with diverse constituents.
- Someone who can strike a balance between being a visionary ambassador and a dynamic organizer helping us to reach our goals
- An individual who is passionate about art and photography
- Masters degree in a related field and 5+ years experience in non-profit leadership preferred
